Entry Levels

Who is this course for?

This course is for adults with a learning disability who wish to improve their skills in art, while improving community inclusion and social skills.

What can I expect to Learn?

You can expect to learn about colour, shape, texture, painting, drawing, printing and much more.

How will I learn?

You will learn through discussion, practical art activities, demonstration, group and individual work.

How will I know how well I am doing?

You will have a negotiated individual learning plan which will record your progress each week. Feedback will also be given during the lesson.

Will I need to do extra work at home?

You will be encouraged to use your news skills at home and in the community.

What will I need to provide?

Please bring paper, pen and a folder to keep your work organised. Your tutor will tell you if you need to bring anything else with you.

Are there any other costs?

Money for a drink and snack at break time, or you are welcome to bring your own with you. Additional costs may be requested for resources and outings.

What can I do next?

You can progress on to other courses. Your tutor will advise as to which is the most suitable. The National Careers Service provides information, advice and guidance to help you make decisions on learning, training and work. The service offers confidential and impartial advice and is supported by qualified careers advisers.
