What Will Happen At My First Lesson

The first week of your course will include Study Skills. Good Study Skills are vital to ensure you gain the best from your course. The Study Skills session will give you the opportunity to discover the best way that you can learn and fully understand the requirements of the course.

Qualification Aim/Level

Entry Level Functional Skills qualifications are available.

Who is this course for?

This course is for adults with learning disabilities wishing to develop their skills in English.

What can I expect to Learn?

You will develop skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening.

How will I learn?

Your tutor will use a number of different teaching methods to develop your skills. These will include a wide range of authentic materials, individual study, working in pairs/group activities and will include the use of video/audio. You will also have the opportunity to use online learning technologies to develop your skills.

How will I know how well I am doing?

You will follow your own individual learning plan with progress recorded by tutors and yourself. Feedback will also be given to you during the lesson.

Will I need to do extra work at home?

You will be encouraged to use the skills you have learnt in the class at home and in the community.

What will I need to provide?

You should bring a file, paper and pen to the session.

Are there any other costs?

Please bring money for a drink and snack at break time or you can bring your own with you.

What can I do next?

You can progress on to other courses. Your tutor will advise as to which is the most suitable.
