Entry Levels

Who is this course for?

This is a course for adults with learning disabilities who wish to learn new skills about baking.

What can I expect to Learn?

You can expect to learn about healthy food choices, planning and following a recipe and preparing food safely. You will also learn about safe food storage and keeping safe in the kitchen.

How will I learn?

You can expect to learn by taking part in practical planning activities, group discussion, group and individual project work.

How will I know how well I am doing?

You will have a negotiated individual learning plan which will record your progress each week. Feedback will also be given during the lesson.

Will I need to do extra work at home?

You will be encouraged to use your news skills at home and in the community.

What will I need to provide?

Please bring paper, pen and a folder to keep your work organised. Your tutor will tell you if you need to bring anything else with you.

Are there any other costs?

Money for a drink and snack at break time, or you are welcome to bring your own with you. Additional costs may be requested for resources and outings.

What can I do next?

You can progress on to other courses. Your tutor will advise as to which is the most suitable.
